 11 established in the municipality's existing general plan land use 12 element. The municipality's general plan shall define the criteria to 13 determine if a proposed amendment to the general plan effects a substantial 14 alteration of the municipality's land use mixture or balance as established 15 in the municipality's existing general plan land use element.

16 ~~H.~~ I. If the municipality does not have a planning commission, the 17 only procedural steps required for the adoption of the general plan, or any 19 by the governing body.

20 ~~I.~~ J. A copy of the adopted general plan of a municipality shall be 21 sent to the planning agency of the county within which the municipality is 22 located, and such plan or any portion of the plan may be adopted as a part 23 of the county general plan.

24 ~~J.~~ K. A general plan, with any amendments, is effective for up to 25 ten years from the date the plan was initially adopted and ratified pursuant 26 to subsection ~~I~~ M of this section, or until the plan is readopted pursuant 27 to this subsection and ratified pursuant to subsection ~~I~~ M of this section 28 or a new plan is adopted pursuant to this subsection and ratified pursuant 29 to subsection ~~I~~ M of this section, and becomes effective. On or before the 30 tenth anniversary of the plan's most recent adoption, the governing body of 31 the municipality shall either readopt the existing plan for an additional 32 term of up to ten years or shall adopt a new general plan as provided by this 33 article.

34 ~~K.~~ L. Except for general plans that are required to be submitted to 35 the voters for ratification pursuant to subsection ~~I~~ M of this section, the 36 adoption or readoption of a general plan, and any amendment to a general 37 plan, shall not be enacted as an emergency measure and is subject to 38 referendum as provided by article IV, part 1, section 1, subsection (8), 39 Constitution of Arizona, and title 19, chapter 1, article 4.

40 ~~L.~~ M. The governing body of a city or town having a population of 41 more than two thousand five hundred persons but less than ten thousand 42 persons and whose population growth rate exceeded an average of two per cent
 43 per year for the ten year period before the most recent United States
 44 decennial census, and any city or town having a population of ten thousand 45 or more persons, shall submit each new general plan adopted pursuant to subsection ~~J~~ K of this section to the voters for ratification at the next regularly scheduled municipal election or at a special election scheduled at least one hundred twenty days after the governing body adopted the plan pursuant to section 16-204. The governing body shall include a general description of the plan and its elements in the municipal election pamphlet and shall provide public copies of the plan in at least two locations that are easily accessible to the public and may include posting on the municipality's official internet web site. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposition approves the new plan, it shall become effective as provided by law. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposition fails to approve the new plan, the current plan remains in effect until a new plan is approved by the voters pursuant to this subsection. The governing body shall either resubmit the proposed new plan, or revise the new plan as provided by this section, for subsequent submission to the voters at the next regularly scheduled municipal election or at a special election scheduled at least one hundred twenty days after the governing body readopted the new or revised new plan. All subsequent adoptions and submissions of the new plan or revised plans must comply with the procedures prescribed by this section until the plan is ratified.

~~M~~ N. In applying an open space element or a growth element of a general plan a municipality shall not designate private land or state trust land as open space, recreation, conservation or agriculture unless the municipality receives the written consent of the landowner or provides an alternative, economically viable designation in the general plan or zoning ordinance, allowing at least one residential dwelling per acre. If the landowner is the prevailing party in any action brought to enforce this subsection, a court shall award fees and other expenses to the landowner. A municipality may designate land as open space without complying with the requirements of this subsection if the land was zoned as open space and used as a golf course pursuant to a zoning ordinance adopted pursuant to article 6.1 of this chapter before May 1, 2000 and the designation does not impose additional conditions, limitations or restrictions on the golf course, unless the land is state trust land that was not planned and zoned as open space pursuant to title 37, chapter 2, article 5.1.

1 (c) Public hearings after effective notice.

2 (d) Open discussions, communications programs and information
3 services.

4 (e) Consideration of public comments.

5 2. Consult with, advise and provide an opportunity for official

10 section 28-8461, other appropriate government jurisdictions, public utility

16 persons who own real property in any specific portion of the county outside 17 the corporate boundaries of any cities and towns. The petitions must be 18 signed by owners of a majority of the acres of real property in the proposed

16 at least one residential dwelling per acre. If the landowner is the 17 prevailing party in any action brought to enforce this subsection, a court 18 shall award fees and other expenses to the landowner. Each county shall 19 incorporate this subsection into its comprehensive plan and provide a process
